

Majau Dark Red Meranti.

| Shorea pauciflora |

All images used are for representation purposes only.

Majau Dark Red Meranti.

Actually from a single specie of Seraya from Borneo, Majau is much more consistent than many commercial parcels of Dark Red Meranti which can be comprised of a number of species. Medium pink to reddish brown in colour, this is a moderately durable hardwood with small movement, and excellent painting and staining properties. It machines easily and cleanly and is firm textured, consistent and reliable in service.

For more information please visit: www.sykestimber.co.uk

Origin. Malaysia.	Density. 630-670kgs/m ³
Availability. Square edged kiln dried boards.	Movement in Service. Small.
Grade. 'Sykes Grade' upgraded from Select and Better. All stocks from a single supplier to ensure consistency.	Thicknesses available. 1", 1.5", 2", 2.5", 3"
Colour. Pink to reddish brown.	Length and width specification. 6' and longer x 6" and wider.
Applications. General Joinery.	Basic price Level. Low.
Durability. Moderately durable.	Summary. Good all-round joinery timber, especially in framing sizes, paints and stains well and is stable.