

African Padauk.

| Pterocarpus soyauxii |

All images used are for representation purposes only.

African Padauk.

This is a timber of extraordinary colour. Bright orange-red when first cut, it gradually darkens to a rich exotic appearance. Padauk is both extremely stable and very durable, and works well, but occasionally has interlocked grain which requires care in machining. Hard, heavy and strong, Padauk is excellent for high class joinery, flooring, furniture and cabinet making.

For more information please visit: www.sykestimber.co.uk

Origin. West Africa.	Density. 740kgs/m ³
Availability. Square edged kiln dried boards.	Movement in Service. Very small.
Grade. FAS.	Thicknesses available. 27mm, 52mm
Colour. Bright orange-red darkening to deep red-brown, occasionally with a purplish hue.	Length and width specification. 2.1m and longer x 100mm and wider.
Applications. Decorative work such as furniture flooring, cabinetry.	Basic Price Level. High.
Durability. Durable to very durable.	Summary. Highly decorative high class cabinet timber. Also suitable for high class joinery.